

Amendments to the Claims:

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listings, of claims in this Application:

1. (Currently amended) A method for reducing the incidence of atrial fibrillation (AF) in a subject with chronic heart failure comprising the administration of a therapeutically effective amount of an angiotensin-converting enzyme (ACE) inhibitor to a subject with chronic heart failure.

2. (Previously presented) A method as defined in claim 1, wherein said chronic heart failure is a result of asymptomatic left ventricular systolic dysfunction.

3. (Previously presented) A method as defined in claim 1, wherein said chronic heart failure is a result of symptomatic left ventricular systolic dysfunction.

4. (Previously presented) A method as defined in claim 1, wherein said ACE inhibitor is selected from the group consisting of: enalapril, captopril, lisinopril, quinapril, ramipril, trandolapril, perindopril, and fosinopril.

5. (Previously presented) A method as defined in claim 4, wherein the regimen for administration of the ACE inhibitor selected in claim 4 is the corresponding regimen selected from the group consisting of: said ACE inhibitor enalapril is administered in an amount of about 5-20 mg/day, said ACE inhibitor captopril is administered in an amount of about 150 mg/day, said ACE inhibitor lisinopril is administered in an amount of about 20 mg/day, said ACE inhibitor quinapril is administered in an amount of about 40 mg/day, said ACE inhibitor ramipril is administered in an amount of about 10 mg/day, said ACE inhibitor trandolapril is administered in an amount of about 4 mg/day, said ACE inhibitor perindopril is administered in an amount of about 8 mg/day, and said ACE inhibitor fosinopril is administered in an amount of about 20 mg/day.

6. (Original) A method as defined in claim 5, wherein said ACE inhibitor is enalapril.

7-12. (Cancelled).

13. (Previously presented) A method as defined in claim 5, wherein said ACE inhibitor is enalapril and the dosage is about 20 mg/day.
